

11th Annual Côte-des-Neiges en fête Festival

Many brothers participated in the 11th annual Côte-des-Neiges en fête festival held on Sunday, September 8, 2013. They helped with set-up and take-down of the tables, chairs, and stage on the St. Kevin's parish lawn. KofC Council No. 13881 and the nascent CWL council also furnished 16 dozen cobs of corn, 288 bottles of water and some Filipino delicacies that were distributed free of charge to attendees. Borough councillor Helen Fotopulos and mayoralty candidate Denis Coderre made an appearance in the early afternoon. More than 300 people attended the festivities.

Regional Meritas received at Lauriers d'Or Dinner

St. Kevin's council 13881 received three regional meritas awards for its 2012 activities at the Lauriers d'Or dinner held as part of the Montréal Regional Congress in St. Henri on Saturday, September 28, 2013. Program director SK Boris Polanski also received a star district plaque and a watch for his work as district 91 deputy. The more than 270 attendees from Montréal-area councils were served a buffet dinner featuring roast pig, roast beef, baked potatoes, mixed vegetables, salads, and apple and sugar pie. A total of five brothers from council 13881 were on hand to celebrate the occasion.

Knights of Columbus Peace Service at St. Kevin's

About 75 people attended a Peace service at St. Kevin's Parish on September 11, 2013, at 7:30pm to commemorate the occasion of the tragic loss of life in the New York World Trade Center attacks with dignity and hope. The regular Mass was concluded with the reading of the Prayer for Peace composed by Pope Benedict XVI for his Prayer Service at Ground Zero on April 20, 2008.
